Per G.S. Singhvi, CJ

With the consent of the parties, the main petition has been taken up for consideration.

In this petition, the petitioner has prayed for issue of a mandamus to the respondents to fill up the backlog vacancies of scheduled castes and scheduled tribes and appoint the candidates belonging to the reserved category.

Shri Nandigam Krishna Rao invited the Court's attention to the averments contained in paragraph 10 of the affidavit of respondent No.2 and submitted that the writ petition may be disposed of in view of the assurance given by the Correspondent of the college that the rule of reservation will be followed in future vacancies.

In view of the statement made by the learned counsel, the writ petition is disposed of as infructuous.

As a sequel to disposal of the writ petition as infructuous, W.P.M.P.No.7780 of 2006 filed by the petitioner is also disposed of as infructuous.
